

unesco

Government of the Netherlands

Event on UNESCO's Programme on the promotion of scientific freedom and the safety of scientists

13h00 - 13h30 - Brownbag lunch

13h30 - 14h30 - Main event

March 19, 2024

Room IV, UNESCO Headquarters

Please use the entrance at 7 Place de Fontenoy

UNESCO and the Kingdom of the Netherlands warmly invite you to join the event on its new Programme on the promotion of scientific freedom and the safety of scientists on 19 March 2024 (13.30-14.30 CET) in Room IV of its Headquarters in Paris.

The event will be opened by Ms Monique van Daalen, Ambassador/Permanent Delegate of the Kingdom of the Netherlands, and Ms Gabriela Ramos, Assistant Director-General for Social and Human Sciences of UNESCO, accompanied by brief messages from Ministers supporting this initiative. A group of Ambassadors/Permanent Delegates will then present a Call to Action on the Freedom and Safety of Scientists and will highlight the key concerns, needs and priorities of their respective countries. The event will also feature key findings of the upcoming publication, entitled The Safety of Scientific Researchers: Data, trends and a typology of threats.

There will be simultaneous interpretation in English and French.

To attend in person, please register here. The event can also be followed online.