THE RECTOR

Ladies and gentlemen, esteemed colleagues, and distinguished guests,

It is with great regret that I find myself unable to join you at this esteemed medical event. However, I am honored to be able to welcome you on behalf of the Rectory Authorities of the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens and share a few words on this momentum occasion for Adolescent Health.

As you gather here today, your collective commitment to advancing and improving medical care unites you all. The challenges we face are immense, but so too are the opportunities to make a lasting impact.

Medical science is the core of human health and well-being. In this forum, you will have the opportunity to exchange as well as enrich your knowledge and enhance your power to advocate for the health and wellbeing of adolescents. In the realm of medicine, every breakthrough, every innovation, and every collaboration, has the potential to transform lives.

I extend my heartfelt gratitude to everyone attending this medical event, the speakers and the supporters who made this conference possible. Your dedication fuels progress, and your commitment to improving adolescent health inspires us all. Let us celebrate the tireless work and achievements of healthcare professionals and administrators.

May this conference be a catalyst for transformative ideas and lasting collaborations.

Wishing you an enlightening and impactful event!

Warm regards

The Rector of National and Kapodistrian University of Athens

Professor of Cardiology, Gerasimos Siasos
